10. Why are you running for this office?

Local government is “where the rubber meets the road” so to speak. As a Libertarian, my philosophy is that the use of force for personal or financial gain is immoral. Government is no exception. Language of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution seem to show the founding fathers of this country also believed in this philosophy. Many attacks on liberty of the individual stem from straying from this principle and there is growing support to return liberty to the individual.

Pre-Interview Questions

(For Legislative and County Commission races)

1. In the next 10 years, what do you believe will be the top three critical needs of Floridians/Brevard Country residents? What role will the office you are seeking play in helping meet these needs, and what plans do you have to help us do so?

The Indian River Lagoon having the biggest impact not only to tourism, but the very health of our citizens is at risk. Cleaning up the lagoon needs to have a multi-faceted approach with all areas for improvement being explored. Working with the community and environmental groups will be crucial to cleanup as well as pinpointing causes and prevention of future impacts.

Local business is paramount in preventing Brevard from becoming a “tourist trap.” While the space program has been successful in bringing people to Brevard both to visit and call home, it is not the only reason. Overregulation has put an undue burden on the entrepreneurial spirit. Easing unnecessary and/or excessive regulation will help to bring back an interest in small business.

Need for safe infrastructure are a constant need for all citizens. Allowing local communities an opportunity to invest in road maintenance or the addition of speed bumps will make those communities safer and its residents more comfortable.

2. How do you weigh decisions between the needs of your local district constituency and those of the county/state as a whole?

A perception of bias toward local district constituencies vs. county/state as a whole will always be present, but through transparency and compromise with other commissioners and representatives that bias can be alleviated.

3. Assuming you are elected/re-elected to the Florida legislature/county commission, what will be your primary area of interest and what do you hope to accomplish in this area? What committees will you request if elected to the legislature?

Brevard’s estuaries and lagoons are home to a great mix of ecosystems and are a major concern for many of Brevard’s residents. These areas will be my primary points of interest. Working with environmentalists in determining causes and possible prevention of future erosion will be major accomplishments for the people of Brevard. I will request to join any and all committees associated with the restoration of local ecosystems.
